MARI VANNA

116 Knightsbridge, SW1
(020 7225 3122)

The utterly charming Luca del Bono is the man behind this Russian concept restaurant – already established in Moscow, St Petersburg and New York – next to the new Bulgari hotel in Knightsbridge and opening as we go to press. Alongside Georgian pie and rabbit dumplings, served beneath the gaze of matryoshka dolls, there will be more familiar offerings, like herrings with potato salad and blinis with caviar. And lashings of vodka, of course.
